

the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, parts of the Divine Office, Rosary, Holy Hour, meditation, and spiritual reading. They were also given a series of conferences to help them in the work of saving their souls.

At the end of October, three of the priests travelled to Cincinnati, Ohio, for a Solemn High Mass and celebration at Immaculate Conception Church. The Mass and celebration were in honor of the ordination of Fr. Harber and Fr. Peters. The following day, the three priests assisted at a day of recollection for the students of Immaculate Conception Academy. They offered Masses, heard confessions, and gave spiritual conferences to the students. The importance of these days of recollection cannot be underestimated, for they provide our Catholic youth with the graces, spiritual strength, and knowledge necessary to persevere in these difficult times.

We are grateful for your prayers, kindness, and generosity. Be assured of our prayers and sacrifices in return.
